Old Business; None

New Business;

Tim Hunsaker, the past President of the Ohio State Trapshooting Association made the announcement that the late Ken Chaney, a longtime member of the club has been voted into the O.S.T.A. Hall of Fame. Son Mike and grandson Andy are current members. His induction will take place next June at the state shoot.

While awaiting the election results Steve asked the members for comments and or suggestions for the club. There were none.

The election results were as follows;

33 members voted

The top four were Robert Burba , Don Swanger, Rife Denlinger, and Danny Jones. Their terms will expire at the end of 2023.

The remaining candidates in order of the highest votes received were Adam Youngquist, Paul Jett, and Jerry Monroe. Per the recent changes to the Bylaws, Adam Youngquist would replace the first Board of Trustee position vacated in 2021 followed by Paul Jett then Jerry Monroe.

Kitchen Crew; None;

$50 and Battle Axe Drawings; None

The meeting was adjourned by a motion from Manny Flugam and seconded by Paul Jett.

Minutes of the BoT Meeting

Manager Erter presented the financial report for November with a surplus of $71,468. A large portion of this was attributed to the influx of 2021 membership renewals. After discussion the report was approved as read.

Officers for 2021 are as follows;

President: Jerry Nickell

Vice-President: Craig Denlinger

Treasurer: Jim Shade

Secretary: To Be Determined.

Manager Erter is working on confirming 2021 dates for the major events.

Jerry Nickell made a motion to adjourn seconded by Danny Jones.
